

B2Glycoprotein IgA and Anticardiolipin IgA testing

- Testing for B2Glycoprotein IgA (Epic Code: LAB8775) and Anticardiolipin IgA (Epic Code: LAB1734) antibodies may aid in the evaluation of patients with suspected antiphospholipid antibody syndrome.
- This testing currently is send out to a reference lab.
- Starting January 21st, testing for both B2Glycoprotein IgA and Anticardiolipin IgA will be performed at SUNY Upstate.

Beta-2 Glyco 1 Ab,IgA ✓ Accept ✗ Cancel

Process Inst: Tier 1 (all credentialed providers)

Frequency:  Once AM Draw Daily BID TID QID

Starting:  Today Tomorrow At:  🕒

First Occurrence: Today 1038

Scheduled Times ⬆

01/15/21 1038

Reference Links: 1. Tiered Categorization

Comments: + Add Comments (F6)

🕒 Next Required Link Order ✓ Accept ✗ Cancel

Cardiolipin antibody, IgA ✓ Accept ✗ Cancel

Process Inst: Tier 1 (all credentialed providers)

Frequency:  Once AM Draw Daily BID TID QID

Starting:  Today Tomorrow At:  🕒

First Occurrence: Today 1038

Scheduled Times ⬆

01/15/21 1038

Reference Links: 1. Tiered Categorization

Comments: + Add Comments (F6)

🕒 Next Required Link Order ✓ Accept ✗ Cancel

The in-house testing will have the below reference ranges:

B2Glycoprotein IgA (Epic Code: LAB8775)
<20 CU = Negative
>20 CU = Positive
Testing range = 2-100 CU

Anticardiolipin IgA (Epic Code: LAB1734)
<20 CU = Negative
>20 CU = Positive
Testing range = 2-900 CU

- Testing for both B2Glycoprotein IgA and Anticardiolipin IgA will be performed every Tuesday and Thursday

For questions, please contact the Immunology Laboratory at 315-464-6764