

UPSTATE COMPREHENSIVE
STROKE CENTER
PRESENTS THE
REGIONAL UPSTATE STROKE AND HEALTH SUMMIT (RUSH)

FALL
2020

VIRTUAL RUSH CONFERENCE SERIES

As the region's first Level 1 Comprehensive Stroke center, we take the responsibility of providing quality Stroke care and resources for our community very seriously. As part of these efforts, Upstate Comprehensive Stroke Center is excited to Offer our first Virtual RUSH Conference Series

Continuing education credits will be offered for attendance and survey completion.

This activity is intended for ED physicians, community neurologists, primary care providers, nursing, and therapies.

UPSTATE
COMPREHENSIVE STROKE CENTER

Wednesday, September 23

Noon - 1 PM

Post-discharge Cardiac Monitoring

Anveet Singh, MD - Dr. Singh is an Assistant Professor of Medicine and practices at the University Cardiovascular Group of Syracuse. He completed his residency in Internal Medicine and Fellowship in Cardiology at Upstate.

Community Hospital-based Primary Stroke Program and Utilization of Telestroke

Fahed Saada, MD - Dr. Saada completed his internal medicine internship at Cleveland Clinic Fairview Hospital in Cleveland, Ohio; a residency in neurology at University of Florida College of Medicine in Jacksonville, Florida; and a clinical neurophysiology fellowship at University of Rochester Medical Center in Rochester, NY. Dr. Saada is a member of the American Academy of Neurology. Dr. Saada is the vice chair in internal medicine and the stroke program director at St. Joseph's Hospital.

Wednesday, October 28

Noon - 1 PM

Advances in Stroke Imaging

Sylvie Destian, MD - Dr. Destian is a Neuroradiologist, Professor of Radiology and Pathology as well as Section Head for the Division of Diagnostic Neuroradiology at Upstate. She has been a neuroradiologist for over 30 years, and stroke center for over 20 years at Upstate and other institutions in New York City.

22 Years of Evolving Stroke Care: A North Country Perspective

Maja Gray, MD - Dr. Gray is a physician in the Emergency Medicine department at Samaritan Hospital in Watertown. She attended New York Medical College in Valhalla, NY and completed her residency at Medical College of Pennsylvania.

Wednesday, November 18

Noon - 1 PM

Medications Used in Stroke Management with a Focus on the Reversal

Rob Seabury, PharmD, BCPS, DABAT - He is clinical staff pharmacist and Clinical Associate Professor in the Department of Medicine at Upstate. His primary practice area is Emergency Medicine and is a member of Code Blue, Stroke and Trauma teams.

Time is Brain: Hyperacute Stroke Care

Carlos Ynigo D. Lopez, MD - Dr. Lopez has completed the ESNI residency at Upstate and have continued on in the Neurology and Stroke Neurointervention Fellowship for very specific, high-level training in vascular neurology.

Endovascular Stroke Therapies: Who, what, when, where, why and how?

Neil Suryadevara, MD, MPH - Dr. Suryadevara is a fourth-year neurology resident at Upstate and serves as chief resident. He will be continuing on the the fellowship program. Born and raised in Syracuse, NY he has a strong interest in the diagnosis, management, and prevention of cerebrovascular diseases.

TO REGISTER FOR VIRTUAL CONFERENCES: UPSTATE.EDU/STROKE/RUSH2020

VIRTUAL RUSH CONFERENCE SERIES

Learning objectives include:

- Identify risk factors for acute ischemic stroke/hemorrhagic stroke
- Review updated standards of acute management for stroke
- Review post-acute care therapy modalities
- Review updated guidelines for secondary risk reduction after stroke

Accreditation

SUNY Upstate Medical University is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

Credit Designation

1.0 contact hours are provided for this educational activity by the Institute for Continuing Nursing Education (ICNE).

Upstate Medical University Institute for Continuing Nursing Education is approved as a provider of nursing continuing professional development by the Northeast Multi-State Division, an accredited approver by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation.

This educational activity does not include any content that relates to the products and/or services of a commercial interest that would create a conflict of interest, and there is no commercial support being received for this activity.

The outcome(s) of this course will be to increase knowledge on COVID-19 and how it affects our patient population, with specific emphasis on the cerebrovascular system.

In order to receive credit for this activity, please ensure that you:

- Have signed the roster, and your email is current
- Stay for the entire class
- An electronic evaluation will be emailed to you within 5 business days; You will have 2 weeks to submit your completed evaluation.
- Once your evaluation is submitted, a certificate will then become available to print out.

Please note that Contact Hours will not be valid until the on-line evaluation is submitted.

UPSTATE
COMPREHENSIVE STROKE CENTER

750 East Adams Street
Syracuse, NY 13210